Ground must be broken within two years for the construction of senior citizens' apartments at 701 N. Main St.

The wording of the ordinance also says that the special use permit can be revoked by the village if, in the opinion of the board of trustees and the village engineer, the developer has not taken reasonable steps to complete the project "within a reasonable period of time after beginning construction."

HEAR TELL a very nice surprise shower was given at the home of Mrs. Terry Meyer for Cindy Hills, who became the bride of Larry Randa on July 10.

More than 50 guests attended the shower for Cindy, who received many beautiful gifts, including a sugar church made by a friend and a "bride and bridesmaid doll," created by her mother.

IT WAS A GIRL on July 1, when Leah Jane Ludden arrived at Lake Forest Hospital. Leah's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ron L. Ludden and the little bundle of joy is their first child. The proud grandparents are the John Luddens of Fort Madison, Ia., and the Earl Schabiackis of Oshkosh

THE ROTARY CLUB OF ANTIOCH gave a nice going-away party last Thursday for Jean-Marie Palu, their exchange student who returns to his native France tomorrow after spending a year living in the homes of four Rotarians.

Vince Patla of the Brave Bull had a special cake made for Jean-Marie's party ... it was decorated with the French flag. Jean-Marie proved to be an outstanding young man and as one of his hosts, Bud Scichowski, said: "It was a pleasure just having a young man like this living in your home as part of your family."

Wayne Parthun, whom the Rotarians jokingly called Jean-Marie's "Godfather," now is awaiting the arrival of the club's new exchange student, Arni Jonsson. The three host families will be the Vern Thelens, the Dennis Johnsons and the Jim Hamlins.

Arni is coming here for a year from his home in Iceland.

recommendation of the village zoning board that the apartment project be permitted.

Plans call for 100 one-bedroom apartments, 14 two-bedroom apartments and 6 three-bedroom apartments.

The special use permit was sought by the owners of the property, Harold C. Young and his wife, Alice. The permit was issued by the village with the following conditions:

"The priority for occupancy belongs to senior citizens within Antioch township or local people from said area.

"The property be developed in compliance with all of the building and fire requirements of the village of Antioch and the office of the State Fire Marshall."

IN OTHER ACTION at Monday night's village board meeting, trustee Vern (Barney) Barnstable obtained permission to have village clerk Marilyn J. Sterbenz advertise for bids to repair a portion of the roof at the fire station.

Barnstable also reported that residents whose sidewalks need repairing will be receiving a letter from the village. Residents who agree to share expenses will find the village paying a little more than half the cost.

Two residents of the village have received notice from the police department that they must remove junked cars from their driveways within five days.

The Knights of Columbus received a beer license for Maxwell Street Days, Aug. 4, 5 and 6.

Commentary

High Cost of Weaponry

"A case study in how to succeed in the weapons business without even flying" is how Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis.) describes the Air Force's $2.9-billion cruise missile program.

The Wisconsin Democrat recently questioned the Air Force's claims of success for the program, noting a series of flight test crashes and navigation mishaps. The fifth and sixth flight tests of the air-launched missile in 1976 ended in crashes and the seventh was postponed, the senator said. Three navigation guidance tests in 1976 were failures and a fourth was cancelled, Sen. Proxmire claimed.

"The taxpayer . . . may wonder whether, on the basis of such a flight test 'successes,' the $2.9-billion cruise missile program is being well-managed," he said.

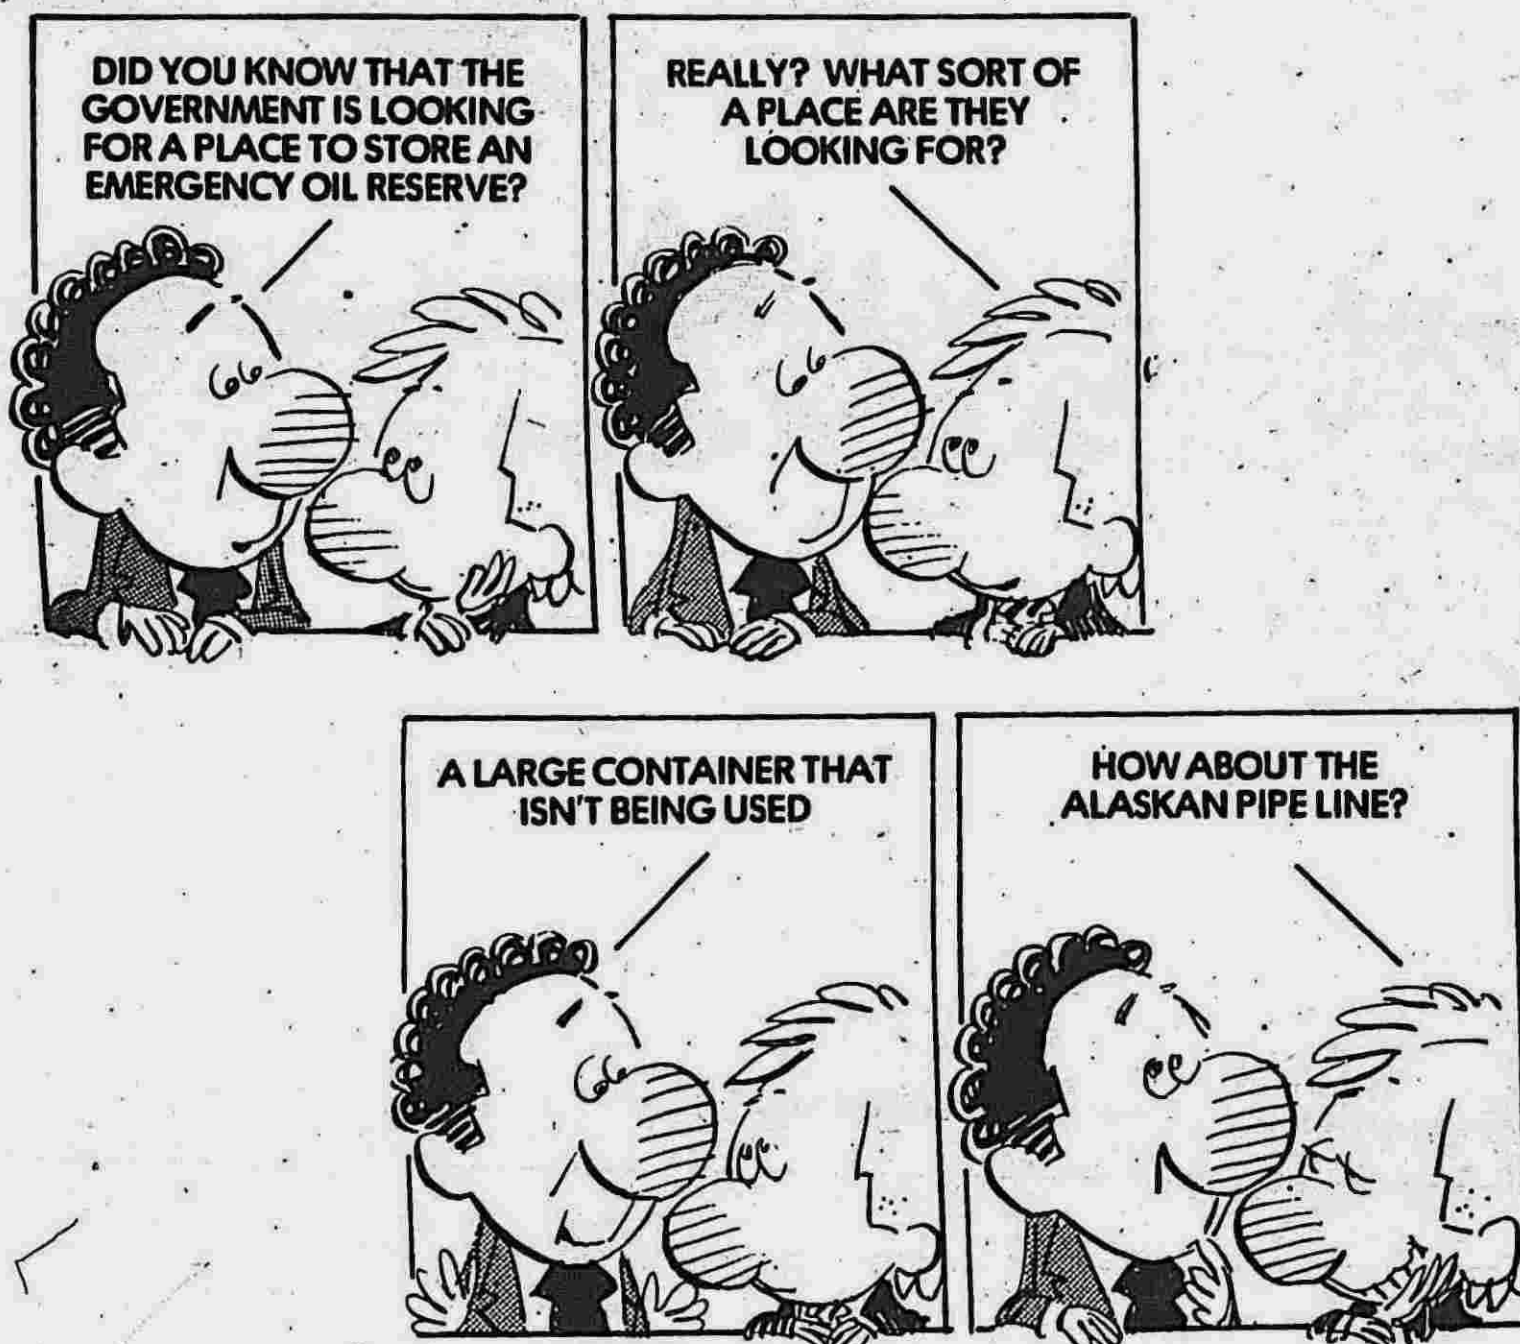

Dollars and the Press

Even the cost to taxpayers of supporting the Washington press corps is on the way up.

Rep. David Obey (D-Wis.) gives these figures: 24 employees of the House and Senate press galleries, plus special doorkeepers and messengers, at a total cost of $592,517 this year; 181 free, reserved parking spaces in choice locations on the Capitol grounds, which at commercial rates would cost $130,000; some 180 free telephones, at $23,000 a year; desks, chairs, typewriters and other equipment worth about $40,000.

Rep. Obey says the cost to American taxpayers of the amenities offered reporters on Capitol Hill "comes to way over $1 million a year," but adds that it is "a small price to pay to enable the press to do its constitutionally protected job of reporting to the American public. . . ."

Bank praised for bike rodeo

The State Bank of Antioch has been honored "for a unique and valuable contribution to the cause of traffic safety in Illinois in conducting a bicycle rodeo."

That's what the plaque said, and it was presented on behalf of Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon to William E. Brook, president of the bank, and Pres Reckers, vice-president who conducted the rodeo.

Coming to Antioch for the presentation were C. J. Murphy and George O'Connell, state director of bicycle safety.

Power? I'll tell you about power!

By JERRY PFARR

Well, the Associated Press has done it again. And I'm getting sick and tired of being overlooked.

The famous news service lost some more of its credibility Sunday when it came out and named the "10 most powerful people in Illinois." For some mysterious reason, my name wasn't included.

It's just like when they picked the world's 10 best-dressed men. They didn't even bother to come to Antioch to see how I was dressed. So they left me off that list, too.

JUST WHOM DOES the Associated Press think are the 10 most powerful people in this state? A bunch of questionable characters, to say the least:

Robert Abboud, chairman of the First Chicago Corporation; Clayton Kirkpatrick, editor of the Chicago Tribune; Roger Anderson, chairman of the Continental National Bank; Michael A. Bilandic, mayor of Chicago; Jim Thompson, governor of Illinois; Marshall Field, a 36-year-old upstart who is publisher of the Chicago Sun-Times and Daily News only because his daddy gave them to him; Alan Dixon, secretary of state; Thomas Ayers, chairman of Commonwealth Edison; Richard Ogilvie, former governor, and Phyllis Schlafly, author, political commentator and the list's token female.

WELL, I WOULD HAVE complained sooner, but I just got back from Michael and Heather's honeymoon. (They asked me to join them, of course.)

There are a few questions I would like to ask the Associated Press.

For example:

Why do you think Farrah Fawcett is thinking of leaving Lee Majors?

Who had a hotline telephone to Herman Franks in the Cubs' dugout, and made all the decisions for Herman in April, May and June? (Too bad he didn't pay his phone bill for the month of July.)

Why do you think Jack Nicklaus plays golf so slowly? He has a radio in the heel of his shoe and, from my television set, I have to tell him what club to use.

When New York blacked out, who did Commonwealth Edison call for advice on keeping this area lighted?

Who taught Bruce Sutter how to throw his forkball? Who, just who, might dust off his old football equipment and play quarterback for the Bears this fall?

WHEN YOU PUT TOGETHER the answers to those questions, you too will realize that a certain dapper small-town newspaperman deserves to be ranked among the most powerful people in Illinois.

But, wait, I'm not one for sour grapes. I'm just happy to settle in the background, enjoying all this power.

Teacher calls private summer school success

"We can't get our son to talk about school during the year. He really doesn't like it and his report card shows it. This summer he's become a different student, for the better."

These are just a few of the comments being received by the Antioch Center for Developmental Learning, according to Max Cummings, one of the teachers.

The Center, as it is frequently called, is a new private school that started its first summer program on June 20. The Center was started by three teachers from the Antioch area, dedicated to the philosophy of instruction in the basic skill areas of reading, writing and math with personal attention given through the use of small-class size.

The last parent meeting of the summer is Wednesday, (tonight) at 7:30, at the Antioch Upper Grade School, which is being rented for the summer classes.

The Time Machine

50 YEARS AGO: JULY 21, 1927

Paying subscription to the Antioch News is an every day occurrence these days, but paying for the 41st time is unusual, to say the least. Mr. E. B. Williams, veteran retired merchant of Antioch, called at the News office yesterday to pay his subscription for the coming year. He has been a reader of the News since its establishment nearly 41 years ago and was here many years before Antioch had a newspaper, having come to this locality in the forties.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF ANTIOCH DIES - At the time of his death Mr. Emmons, who was 96 years old, was the oldest living resident of Lake County. He came to Antioch when he was 12 years of age and has lived here continuously with the exception of four years spent in California during the gold rush in 1849.

Mr. Emmons often spoke of Antioch as he first saw it with only three log cabins and eight families. For many years he kept a general store, which he combined with a post office on the site where Reeves Drug store now stands. During his active years he held the posts of road commissioner, postmaster and member of the board of supervisors of the county.

LOST - Crank for car on Richmond Road or between Channel Lake and Antioch. Return to News office.

20 YEARS AGO: JULY 18, 1957

Dr. Eleanor Zilke Thill, the former Eleanor Zilke of Antioch who graduated from the Antioch Township High School in 1937 as valedictorian of her class, was nominated as the "Outstanding Woman of the Year" in the Business and Professional field by the Waleria Business and Professional Women's Club of California where she now resides.

A Kenosha County farmer was reported to have threatened three boys and two girls with a pellet gun when he found their car parked on his farm which extends into Lake County near Antioch.

The three boys and two girls had to leave the farm on foot because the farmer took their car keys and wallets. Kenosha County deputies talked the farmer into giving the belongings of the boy back and other difficulties were worked out.

Tax statements for both real estate and personal property will be mailed to Antioch Township residents this week by Collector John L. Horan. It will be the last time that the Antioch Township taxpayers will receive their bills locally because the collectors office was abolished in an election last November.

10 YEARS AGO: JULY 20, 1967

It was Christmas in July last week for anyone watching the "crew" putting together generous Project Viet Nam donations.

Commonwealth Edison Company will build a 2,200,000-kilowatt nuclear power station in Zion, Chairman J. Harris Ward announced today.

Especially timely for Antioch's Diamond Jubilee Celebration is the next presentation of Palette, Masque & Lyre which opens July 23. The new offering of Antioch's dramatic work shop is "Take Me Along," the story of a 16 year old boy who becomes a man during one Fourth of July in a small American town at the turn of the century.

The PM&L offering will help set the stage for the nostalgia being generated by plans for the village's 75th anniversary.

HONORED FOR BICYCLE RODEO - The State Bank of Antioch's recent bicycle safety rodeo was praised by the Illinois secretary of state this week when a plaque was presented to William E. Brook, president of the bank. From left: C.J.

Murphy and George O'Connell, state director of bicycle safety, representing Alan J. Dixon, secretary of state; Mr. Brook and Pres Reckers, vice-president of the bank, who was in charge of the rodeo.

given out were 18 trophies and 18 medals.

All riders who participated received a complimentary set of reflectors for their bikes and a variety of bike safety materials from the office of the Secretary of State.

FIRST, SECOND AND third place trophies and medals were awarded in age groups 6 through 9, 10 through 13 and 14 through 17 in both boys and girls divisions.

Registered riders took advantage of the bike safety checks being conducted by Brian Boehm, 665 Lake St., Antioch, and registered their bicycles with Sgt. Tom Fisher and William Zeason of the Antioch Police Department.

O'CONNELL SAID THE State Bank of Antioch was the first bank in Illinois to put on such a safety rodeo.

"More than 100 for the first-time turnout is great," he said. "Our purpose is to acquaint kids with the hazards of riding their bikes in traffic ... and how to cope with those hazards. More than 80 percent of the accidents involving bicycles are the riders' fault."

He said Illinois now has 4 million bicycles registered and 350,000 new ones are being added to the list each year.

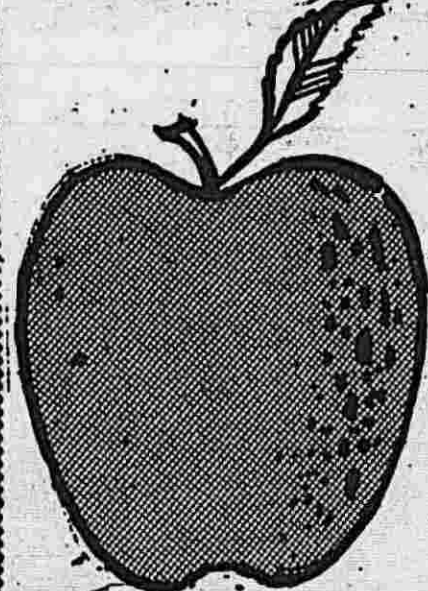

"So they're competing on the road with automobiles," O'Connell said. "That's why bike safety rodeo skills are so important to learn."

Little Gallery, Inc., 943 Main St., now carries a wide selection of art and craft supplies.

My newly acquired friend, Sharon Teaters, invites everyone to stop in and browse around the new department which features macrame, feathers, art foam, latch hook rug kits and much more.

Sharon asked me to mention that the needlepoint supplies are ordered and will be available soon. So all you needlepoint lovers, hang in there - it won't be long!

In addition to the craft line, they are still handling cards, party goods and gifts.

THE DORTMUNDER INN, a mile and a half west of Antioch on Rt. 173, specializes in German foods and imported wines and beers.

Most of you are aware of the famous fish fry and potato pancakes every Friday, but did not know they are open for lunch every day except Thursday? You have your choice from the tempting menu or the daily special.

Lake County sure has some great restaurants. Ummmmmmmm.

The added space is necessary because of tight working conditions at the telephone company's present location on Main St. The enlarged quarters will also allow them to have a "Phone Center" so the customers can view the various phone styles.

I wonder who we'll be seeing next at 932 Main St.

DON'T FORGET THIS SATURDAY, July 23, Ronald McDonald is coming to Antioch. The shows will be at 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. I'd sure like his autograph.

PERSPECTIVES

Image-making

By DONALD COLE

Critics of the Bible sometimes make wild charges against it, such as the alleged eroticism of the Old Testament. Moviemakers have milked this notion for all it is worth, leaving some viewers with the impression that the Old Testament is a collection of stories about seductive girls named Delilah and Bathsheba. It is a mistaken impression.

Not that the Bible does not tell about those girls; it does indeed. But the biblical account of their doings is far from erotic; the truth is, the effect of the stories on those who read them is sadness and revulsion. Sadness because the sins the girls committed resulted in death, and revulsion because immorality—stripped of the false glamor with which the movies present it—is seen in its true ugliness. A sober reading of the stories as given in the Bible does not excite in any way.

At least two points may be made here: first, the Bible presents its characters with sublime impartiality. No one is portrayed sentimentally; character portraits are presented truthfully, warts and all. The writers of the Bible knew nothing of today's art of public relations; they were not image-makers. When they described a man or woman, they reported what they saw, not what they would like to have seen.

This explains the recorded flaws in men like Abraham, David and Peter.

On at least two occasions that great man Abraham lied and betrayed his wife (Genesis 12:10-20; 20:1-12). Everybody knows that Israel's greatest king, David, committed adultery and murdered a man in an attempted cover-up (cf. 2 Sam. 11:1-21). The apostles were by no means as savage, but on one occasion James and John expressed a wish to wipe out an entire village of Samaritan people (Luke 9:51-54); Jesus rebuked them for it. Then there was Peter's denial and, later, Paul's fight with Barnabas (Matt. 26:69-75; Acts 15:36-39). Obviously, the scriptures do not gloss over the sins of the saints.

However — and this is the second point, already noticed — sin is never sentimentalized or made attractive. The biblical principle is that "the wages of sin is death," and in accordance with this, the focal point in any allegedly erotic or romantically sinful episode is the consequences. You cannot read the Bible and avoid the conclusion that violations of God's commandments bring bitter consequences. Yet this effect is achieved without editorializing by the writers; they simply present the facts, and let the facts speak for themselves.

This quality in the Bible confirms its claim to inspiration. Uninspired literature tends inevitably to justify at least some of the character flaws of its heroes. The Bible does not. Its writers were holy men, moved by the Holy Spirit of God. What they wrote was invariably true to the facts.

THE Entertainer

'My Fair Lady' comes to Antioch this week

"My Fair Lady," by Lerner and Loewe, one of America's most delightful and successful musical comedies, will provide a summer evening of enjoyment to area theatre audiences on July 29, 30, and Aug. 5, 6, 12 and 13 at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch.

Curtain time is 8:30 each night.

Reservations should be made well in advance by calling 395-3055. Seating is limited and seats will be in great demand, PM&L spokesmen say.

Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for students. Reservations should be picked up by 8:15 p.m. on show nights.

A TALENTED CAST has been chosen by director Tom Hausman.

Mary Chris LaKome from Lake Zurich plays the spunky Eliza Doolittle, who is transformed from a poor flower girl to a beautiful and proper lady. Mary Chris teaches at St. Mary's in Fremont Center.

She appeared in PM&L's "Sound of Music" and "The Man Who Came to Dinner," for which she received the PM&L Thespis Award.

She has been musical director for several shows and also played Mary Magdalene in "Jesus Christ Super Star."

Miss LaKome is appearing as the singer at the reception in the Robert Altman movie "A Wedding," which is being filmed in Lake Bluff. She sings in the movie with a local band and, at the moment, has six songs which are being filmed by the Hollywood moviemakers.

Bill Misik from Vernon Hills is playing the brilliant and crochety Professor Higgins. Bill is the vocal music director at Adlai Stevenson High School and has directed many musicals.

This is his stage debut with PM&L.

KEN SMOUSE FROM ANTIOCH is appearing as Colonel Pickering, a linguistic expert who helps with Eliza's transformation. Ken was president of PM&L for many years and has acted in or directed many productions. His most memorable role was as Teyve in

"Fiddler on the Roof."

He is drama director at Antioch High School.

Don Beveroth from Paddock Lake, Wis., plays the boisterous, often tipsy, yet thoroughly lovable Alfred P. Doolittle, Eliza's father. Don is an English teacher and has also been president, director, and an actor for PM&L. This year he appeared as Willie Clark in "The Sunshine Boys."

Jeanne McIntyre from Antioch is Mrs. Pearce, Professor Higgins' long-suffering housekeeper. She has had five years experience in professional singing and has been in several Hayloft Jamborees. She is a teacher in Schaumburg.

Larry Bunton from Wauconda is Freddy Eynsford-Hill, the young man who falls in love with Eliza. Larry is an apprentice at the Academy Festival Theatre at Lake Forest and hopes to have a professional career in theatre.

He has appeared with the McHenry Country Club Theatre, Barat College Theatre, and with the Woodstock Performing Co.

Lillian Allen from Antioch spends most of her time acting with area theatres. She is Mrs. Higgins, the professor's mother.

Band group schedules 3rd picnic

Next Wednesday, July 27, the Antioch Grade School Band Parents association will hold its 3rd annual summer band family picnic.

"There will be fun for all who attend. We request that parents attend with their children," a spokesman for the group said.

The schedule is: Games, 5 p.m.; dessert walk and eat, 6 p.m., and free concert 7 p.m.

The picnic will be held at the Upper Grade School. Families are requested to bring their own prepared picnic dinner, plates and silverware.

Kool aid and coffee will be furnished.

Anyone wishing to enter the "dessert walk" must bring a baked good with enough dessert for an average-size family.

The concert will be performed by the senior, junior and intermediate summer band students. The concert will be in the gym at the school.

The public is invited.

Wedding Bells Getting Later

Americans are waiting longer to get married, reports the Census Bureau. A new study shows that during 1960-76 the average age at which young men and women first marry increased by about one full year, from 22.8 years to 23.8 years for men and from 20.3 to 21.3 years for women.

In addition, since 1970 the percentage of singles among persons 25 to 39 years has increased, perhaps indicating that not only has later marriage gained general acceptance but also that a higher proportion of adults may never marry than in the recent past.

Antioch star to attend Illinois

Illinois State Representative Donald E. Deuster (R-Mundelein) has awarded a General Assembly Scholarship to John J. Kakacek, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kakacek, Rt. 5, Antioch.

John graduated from Antioch High School this June and ranked second in his class. He will attend the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana this fall and plans to study toward a law degree.

At Antioch High School, John earned an outstanding record in both scholastics and athletics. He was a member of the National Honor Society, participated in football and wrestling, was captain of the football team and made all-conference.

John was also captain of the Antioch wrestling team. He is expected to continue his wrestling career at Illinois.

In announcing the General Assembly Scholarship, Deuster said, "John Kakacek has been highly recommended to me by many persons acquainted with his excellent academic achievements as well as his athletic accomplishments. It makes me happy to help a fine young man like John pursue his education. I am sure that his performance at the University of Illinois will be a source of pride for his family and friends."

Final registration for Viking football

The Antioch Vikings junior tackle football program will hold its second sign-up this weekend.

All interested boys who will be in the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades and will not reach their 15th birthday by Sept. 1 may register at the Antioch Scout House on Friday night, from 6 to 9 p.m. or Saturday morning from 9 a.m. to noon.

The registration fee is $18 for the first boy from each family and $15 for each additional boy. Fee includes insurance, use of all equipment and facilities and a practice jersey which the boy keeps at the end of the season.

ALL BOYS COMPETE at their individual size, age and skill levels. The Vikings will be represented by five teams in the Northern Illinois Junior Tackle Football League along with other area community teams. All games are usually played on Sunday afternoons during Sept. and Oct.

Viking practices will begin on Aug. 15 at 6 p.m. on the high school practice field.

Tom Jones wins feature

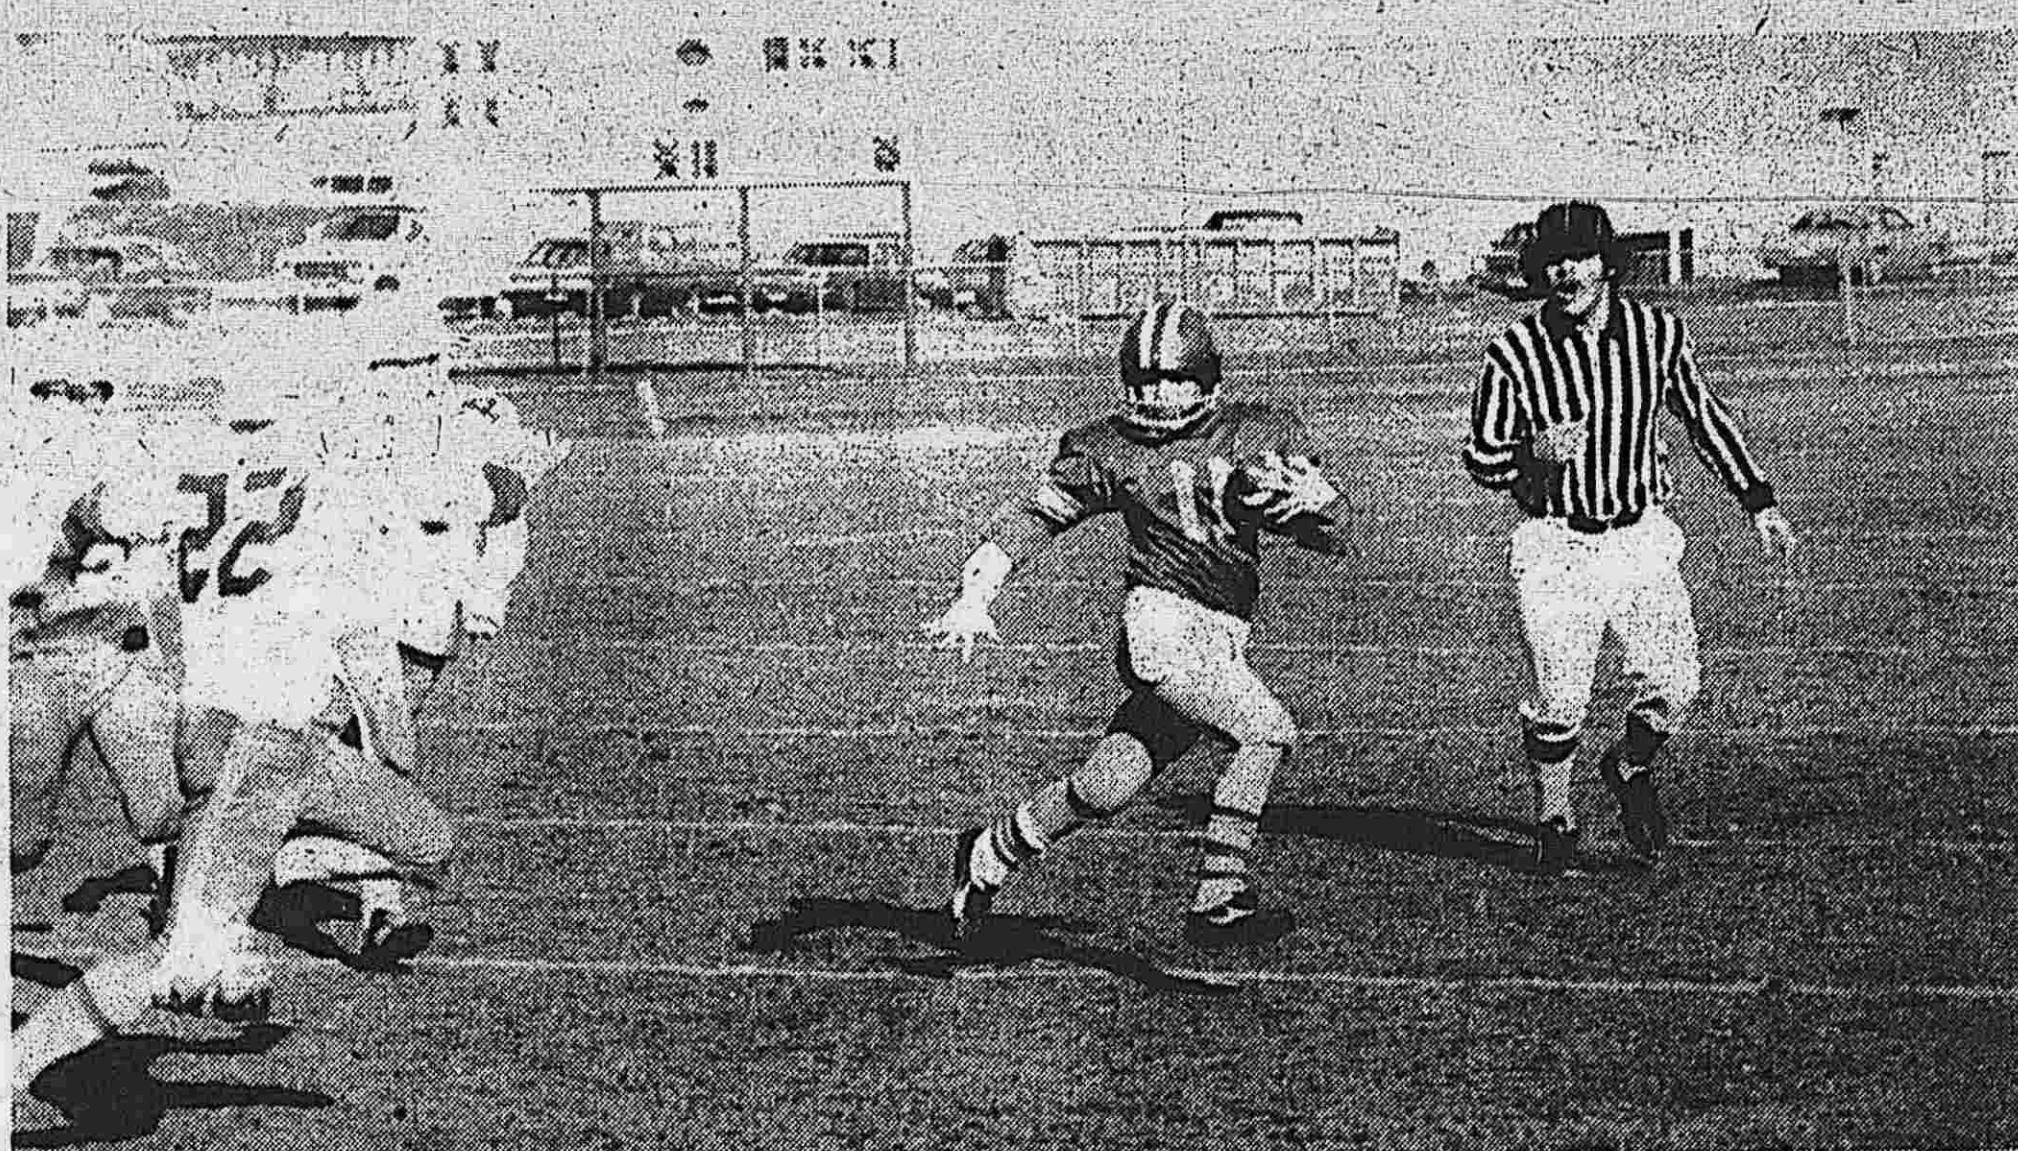

By MICHAEL H. BABICZ

In late model super stock racing action at Waukegan Speedway Sunday night, it was Tom Jones, the current point leader, returning to the track after a few weeks absence due to engine problems.

Jones returned in fine form as he won the 30-lap feature and also set fast time with a lap of 13.69 seconds.

George Dukas won the trophy dash, with heat wins

THE LITTLE GUYS look almost like the pros when they play football in Antioch's Viking program. This is a scene from one of last year's games. The junior tackle football program will hold its second sign-up this weekend. (See story below.)

Hunter safety courses

Sportsman's Corner

Illinois law requires that "no hunting license shall be issued to any person under 16 years of age unless he presents the person authorized to issue such license either:

(a) Evidence that he has held a hunting license issued by the state of Illinois or another state in a prior year, or
(b) A certificate of competency (hunter safety certification) issued by the Illinois Department of Conservation, division of law enforcement."

THE DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION has designated volunteers to instruct safety education classes, and the Northern Illinois Conservation Club has scheduled classes to include two sessions.

The first will be held on consecutive Saturdays, July 23 and 30, from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

The second class (also consisting of two sessions) will be held on consecutive Saturdays, Aug. 13 and 20 from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

The classes will be conducted at the Northern Illinois Conservation clubhouse, located three miles west of Antioch off Rte. 173.

The coordinating instructor for the classes is Henry Kaht. Persons interested in obtaining further information can contact Mr. Kaht at 395-1898.

THE SAFETY EDUCATION CLASS is certified by the Illinois Department of Conservation and persons wishing to obtain hunter safety certification will be required to attend a mandatory eight hours of instruction, such as those beginning on the above dates.

The classes cover a variety of subjects: wildlife management, hunter ethics, firearms safety, first aid and survival techniques. They are for the young and old, hunter and non-hunter alike. The classes are open to the public.

FISHERMEN WILL BE INTERESTED to hear that the Conservation Department reports channel catfish averaging 12 to 14 inches being taken from Grass Lake, near Spring Grove.

Most fishermen are using redworms effectively. Bluegills are small, the report said.

On the Fox River, near McHenry, the best fishing has been below the dam. There have been reports of 3 lb. carp taking doughbaits.

Happenings

The annual Lake County Democratic Picnic will be held Sunday.

"Hub" Stern, chairman of the Lake County Democratic Party, said;

"Our tickets and flyers say that the picnic will run from 12 noon until 8 p.m. Last year the music was so good and everyone was having so much fun that we kept the music going until almost 10 o'clock. We hope this year's music will be even better."

The picnic will be held at Wooster Lake Park in Ingleside (south of Fox Lake). The picnic grounds are about a mile east of Rte. 12 on Rte. 134.

Chairman of the picnic committee, James Righheimer, said a sky diving group from McHenry County will perform.

"This group performed for us last year and was really thrilling," Righheimer said. "The divers enjoyed themselves so much that they volunteered to come again this year."

"The picnic," Righheimer said, "is designed as a fun affair which everyone can afford." Admission is by $1. donation, with children under 12 admitted free.

Food and drink will be reasonably priced to accommodate all pocket-books, he said.

There will be games for the young folks and swimming for all.

Tickets will be available at the gate.

Personal to Triple-A Bullshooters from Foremost Crap Shooters

The audacity of your remarks in this newspaper last week leaves us no choice but to teach you some manners on the trapshooting range.

The contest will be held on the date you select in September. Losers to buy dinner and drinks at Steve's Lounge.

The rules you big mouths have laid down are acceptable to us. You will shoot from the 26-yard line, your regular handicap yardage according to you, and we will shoot from the 16-yard line, as you have stated last week.

Just be sure and have your team of Blowhards with you. I understand they consist of an outdated glassblower called Patsy Watson. With his mouth I guess he's got the right job. Ronnie Lowery, a V.W. mechanic with a $1,400.00 shot gun he calls Priscilla (how disgusting). And Len Huhn, a sore-thumbed carpenter whose nickname is "Band-aids."

Also, Lou Olandese, better known as Las Vegas Lil, who can be found sleeping at the controls of an engine on the Milwaukee Road; and yourself, Art Moldenhauer, who can be found sitting on your oversized backside from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. at Triple A Reloading.

going to Roy Acuff and Tom Musgrave.

In the fast heat, which Acuff won, Acuff and Jones came together as the two came out of a turn after eight laps. Acuff continued but Jones spun wildly and some heads-up driving by Dave Evans and Ray Young prevented a serious accident.

THERE WERE many surprises and first-time winners at the Speedway on Saturday night.

The big winner of the evening in the late model sportsman division was Chuck Clark of Wauconda.

Clark was the night's fastest qualifier with a 14.74 lap and he also won the 25-lap feature.

Combining his night's work with the absence of point-leader Don Collins, who blew an engine last weekend, Clark took over the sportsman division point lead.

Tigers take Little League crown

The Little League Championship was clinched on Friday by the Antioch State Bank Tigers when they defeated a tough Roland's Bakery Oriole Team coached by Tom Poulos and Mike Schueneman.

The Tigers took two out of three in a three game series against the Orioles.

The Tigers, coached by Tom Haviland and Andy Proctor, after losing the first game to the Orioles 11-9 in an extra inning game, came back in the second game to defeat them 10-1. They went on to win the third game 8-6.

In the bottom of the sixth inning with the score tied, a runner on first and one out, Frank Heiselmann lined one over the left center fence for the game winning run.

The Little League teams will receive their awards on Award Night, Sept. 6 at the high school. Guest speaker will be from the Cubs.

Antioch swimmers win 2 meets

By CAROL BERRY

The Antioch Swim Team, sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch, won its second conference dual meet at Lake Forest last Saturday.

The win left Antioch with a record of two wins and three losses for 1977 conference meets.

After beating Lake Forest at the conference relays by four points the Antioch team proved its potential, but after beating Lake Forest in a dual meet 240 to 206, Antioch has

Lake Forest was at its full strength when they went against Antioch.

BREAKING THEIR RECORD of 29 firsts out of 51 events against Tennaqua, Antioch took 30 firsts against Lake Forest. Antioch swept six events taking first, second and third places in each one.

With 78 Antioch swimmers in the meet the first places were distributed over a larger group than usual. Twenty-two swimmers got in on first places, either in relays or individual events.

Winners of four firsts were Sue Harrison, Shelly Volling, Phil Jaworek and Greg Shepard. Three firsts were taken by Joel Bellucci and Scott Shepard.

Double victories were won by Trina Spietz and Brian Boggsland and John Bellucci.

Kaky and Kerry Kelly, Ted Bessette, Jack Fields, Jeanie Cilik, Keith Latz, Judy Houghton, Stacy Harrison, Carol Berry, Jerry Smith, Matt Ludwig, Denise Latz and Brad Pekarik each won a single first place.

Antioch swimmers made sure that Coach Marty Berry's corsage, presented to her by the swimmers as a birthday gift, was removed from her suit before she was thrown in the water as a victory celebration.

THE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS will be held at Plum Grove in Palatine on Saturday. Action will begin at 9 a.m. Antioch swimmers are hoping to do better than their last year's third place in the championships.

The Antioch team won its first conference dual meet last Tuesday when it met Tennaqua of Deerfield.

Antioch won 246 to 202.

In 51 events, Antioch managed to capture 29 firsts, 20 seconds and 25 thirds.

High scorers were George Bessette, Shelly Volling and Phil Jaworek with four firsts each. Next in line were Sue Harrison, Jack Fields, John and Laura Clewis, and Trina Spietz, winners of three firsts apiece.

Ted Bessette, Keith Latz and Greg Shepard were the double winners while Judy Houghton, Ann Ivy, Carolyn Stanley, Kerry Kelly, Denise Latz and Jerry Smith all won single victories.

Honorable mention was given by Coach Marty Berry to 8-year-old Cindy Morris and 10-year-old Derek Klein, both newcomers to competitive swimming who have worked diligently and improved steadily since the start of the season.

ABC's of Travel

By BARR CORBIN

NEW BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE RULES - The CAB has modified an IATA proposal to allow the following checked baggage on transatlantic and transpacific flights. First Class - two checked bags are allowed, each with a combined height, length and width measurement of not more than 62 inches.

Economy - two bags that together measure no more than 106 inches and neither of which measures more than 62 inches.

Carry on - one bag no larger than a combined height, length and width measurement of 45 inches. (This is an increase over the old 39 inch standard.)

The CAB rules also permit carriers to consider certain items a 55-inch piece of luggage regardless of the actual dimensions. These items include a sleeping bag, bedroll, knapsack, backpack, pair of snow skis with boots and poles, golf bag and pair of shoes or duffle bag.

Additional pieces of luggage not exceeding 80 inches in height, length and width will be carried across the Atlantic for flat fees ranging from $30 to $60, to Africa for $40 to $75, on Pacific routes for $55 to $85 and to South American destinations by Pan Am for $30 to $60.

No weight limitations are to be imposed on any category of baggage. However, be careful with charter travel. Some of these carriers still go by the weight rule.

Pets, as in the past, will not be included in the free allowance, and excess charges (as listed above) will be made except in the case of seeing eye dogs which will continue to be carried free when accompanying a person with impaired vision.

Bulky or fragile cabin baggage occupying a seat will be charged full adult fare for class used by passenger.

We get this question just about everyday during summer vacation time and when students begin to go back and forth; so I hope this will help a few.

For more help, just give a call. Travel agents only have a service which is still free; and I must say, I don't know who else has a service for the same price. So, why not stop in the next time you are in town.
